

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

FRIDAY 16TH AUGUST

8.00 - 12.00 am Scout Hut SINGAROUND (Collection)

All welcome to the first singaround of the weekend in the company of Kitty and Derek. Bring your voices and join in the choruses. Unaccompanied and accompanied songs welcomed..

8.00 - 12.00 am Rugby Club MUSIC SESSION (Collection)

The effervescent Bill McKinnon welcomes all comers to this friendly open session. Tunes from all over the British Isles and beyond.

12.00 am - Early Scout Hut MIDNIGHT SPECIALS

A late night session of tunes, songs and stories for those in no hurry to get to bed!

SATURDAY 17TH AUGUST

9.30 - 10.30 am Scout Hut Whistle Workshop (£6)

Georgia Lewis will lead this session. Participatory: all levels.

10.30 - 11.30 am Rugby Club Songs in Harmony (Collection)

Hosted by Elaine and Jeff Gillett. Participation welcomed.

10.30 - 11.30 am Scout Hut Elegies and Eulogies (£6)

Nicola Clark sings, with characteristic warmth, wisdom and wit, songs in memory and in celebration of friends, family and pets.

11.30 - 1.30 pm Rugby Club Session with the Stars (Collection)

A session with a difference. Mostly tunes, with plenty of opportunity for participation, hosted by Jeff Gillett - and featuring James Findlay and The Georgia Lewis Trio. Musicians and singers welcome.

12.00 - 3.00 pm The Bell Inn BIG SING (Collection)

Hosted by Denise Dryburgh. Choruses welcome but not compulsory: fill the pub and raise the roof with your voices!

3.30 - 4.45 am Scout Hut 'Tyrants and Traitors' (£6)

Jacqui and Brian Ross present a musical excursion through the years of the American Civil War, in story and song, from John Brown to reconstruction by way of Dabney's wife's clothes-line and a pound of candy! Hosted by Elaine Gillett.

4.00 - 6.00 pm The Bell Inn MUSIC SESSION (Free)

An informal session. All instrumentalists welcome

6.00 - 7.00 pm On the field if fine or in the Scout Hut: Eat in Company

Bring your own food and camping table & chair if you have one and enjoy company and a good chat over tea.

SATURDAY 17TH AUGUST (Continued)

6.30 - 7.30 pm Old Mill Hall MUSIC/SONG SESSION (Free)

An informal session before the evening ceilidh. Cheese, bread and pickle available, or bring your own food. Licensed bar from 6 pm.

7.30 - 11.00 pm Village Hall CONCERT (£15)

with James Findlay, Alice and David Wylde, Nicola Clark and The Georgia Lewis Trio. MC: Elaine Gillett

A veritable feast for lovers of live folk music - and a real ale bar to boot!

8.00 - 11.30 pm Old Mill Hall WHITE HORSE CEILIDH (£10)

with Cock and Bull Band and Mary Panton

Interval spot: James Findlay

Hosted by White Horse Ceilidhs, a lively and energetic dance with an experienced caller to guide you through (so no experience is needed). Comfy shoes are advised. There will be a real ale bar.

8.00 - 12.00 am Scout Hut SONG/MUSIC SESSION (Free)

A song and tunes session for those who prefer to make their own entertainment. Hosted by Brian and Jacqui Ross.

SUNDAY 18TH AUGUST

9.30 - 10.30 am Scout Hut On the Fiddle (£6)

James Findlay and Rowan Piggott will play, talk, jam and share tips and techniques in this informal workshop.

10.45 - 12.15 am Scout Hut WHO THE FOLK IS ALICE? (£6)

Alice and David Wylde give an illustrated talk and performance, tracing the roots of Alice's songs to her years in West Virginia.

10.30 - 11.30 am Rugby Club FOLK QUIZ (collection)

Brian and Jacqui Ross and Denise Dryburgh will lead this entertaining and not altogether reverent exploration of all things folk.

12.00 - 3.00 pm The Bell Inn BIG SING (Free)

Hosted by Denise Dryburgh. Join us for the final sing of the weekend.

12.00 - 3.00 pm Rugby Club MUSIC SESSION (Collection)

Last chance to join Bill McKinnon for more songs and tunes. Instrumentalists, singers and listeners all welcome.